

International Webinar: Diversity & Inclusive Leadership: Doing Business Differently

Date and time:

Thursday, 30 March 2023
8:00 AM – 10:00 AM Czechia (UTC+2)

Ever wondered why diversity and inclusive leadership is so important to successful businesses and organizations?

About this event

Many organizations want to increase their commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Come and hear from academic experts and businesses such as IKEA and Skoda Auto a.s. on the topic. Learn about new concepts, priorities and challenges in diversity and inclusion and how inclusive leadership is key to success.

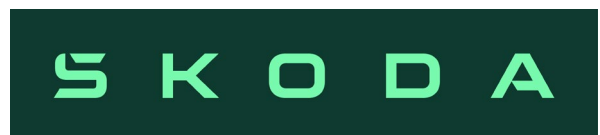

Register in advance for this webinar:

https://charlessturt.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_yWhWXxl5TJO7V93ws4QpXA

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Proudly brought to you by:

MASARYK
UNIVERSITY

This is the fourth webinar in a series of joint international webinars presented by Charles Sturt University Australia and Masaryk University, Brno Czech Republic.

Panellists and Speakers

Dr Fredrik Velandar (Charles Sturt University, Australia)

Lecturer in the School of Social Work and Arts, Charles Sturt University, since 2010. Research interests include mental health, organizational health, kindness pedagogy and curriculum development.

Dr Holly Randell-Moon (Charles Sturt University, Australia)

Holly researches in the areas of critical race and whiteness studies, education, and cultural competency. For more information on her research, please visit: <https://researchoutput.csu.edu.au/en/persons/holly-randell-moon>

Associate Professor Cate Thomas (Charles Sturt University, Australia)

Cate researches in the areas of social equality, intersectionality, inclusion and belonging. She is particularly interested in organizational development and culture.

Ivan Dillinger - Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Leader (IKEA Czech Republic, Hungary, Slovakia)

Ivan is responsible for implementing Equality, Diversity & Inclusion (ED&I) strategy in CZ HU SK region and networking with stakeholders across the country to proactively support the integration of ED&I in all functions. He is responsible for implementing global direction locally, reflecting country specifics, IKEA commitment, and addressing gaps contributing to the effort to become a recognized leader in the EDI.

Dr Blanka Plasová (Masaryk University, Czech Republic)

Blanka's research focuses on the topics of work-family imbalance and gender inequality at the employer level. On a practical level, she works as a coordinator for work-family reconciliation and as a consultant for the promotion of gender equality plans in the university environment.

Dr. Iveta Zelenková (Masaryk University, Czech Republic)

Iveta's research focuses on organisational research and managing organizations and leading people in changing environments with special focus on adapting flexible working conditions in the context of diversity.

Natalia Hudecova – Diversity & Inclusion Specialist (Skoda Auto)

Natalia is a DEI ambassador responsible for development and delivery of DEI programme and strategy across the organisation, supporting and working closely with People & Culture representatives, executives, other colleagues, and external partners.