Embark on a Transformative Journey to The Hague, Netherlands. Elevate Your Digital Literacy in Social Work!

Are you a bachelor student studying at our department, eager to explore the realms of digital participation, digital citizenship, and critical media literacy? Join our exclusive blended intensive program (BIP) and become part of an international community of passionate learners!

Program Highlights:

- Explore the intersection of social work and the digital landscape
- Investigate how to ensure equal access to information and services for all social work clients
- Engage in enriching discussions and collaborative learning with fellow students from the Netherlands, Czech Republic, and Finland
- Immerse yourself in The Hague's vibrant culture, adding a touch of adventure to your educational journey

What's In It For You:

- Earn 3 ECTS credits (active participation and assignments' completion)
- Enhance your cross-cultural skills and communication abilities
- Develop essential digital skills and media literacy
- Foster personal growth, adaptability, and self-confidence

Financial Details:

- Project funding provides 70 EUR per day for travel costs and accommodation during the intensive week, including 1-2 travel days.
- Lunches will be provided by the host organization.
- Additional expenses will be covered by students themselves.

Application Process:

To apply, simply email your CV and a motivating letter (as attachments) to balrom@mail.muni.cz by November 30, 2023.

Selections will be finalized by December 20, 2023, with only 10 fortunate BA students from our department securing a spot in this program.

The selection criteria include:

- Diverse team composition (students from different academic years)
- A demonstrated readiness and motivation to team work
- Prior involvement in internationalization activities during your studies
- Engagement in international and multicultural activities
- Your current stage of studies

Don't miss this incredible opportunity to expand your horizons, learn, and grow with a like-minded European community.

Apply now and be a part of an educational adventure like no other!
